A die is a specialized machine tool used in manufacturing industries to cut and/or form material to a desired shape or profile. Stamping dies are used with a press, as opposed to drawing dies (used in the manufacture of wire) and casting dies (used in molding) which are not. Like molds, dies are generally customized to the item they are used to create.

Several meanings or phrases might be used. "The Die Is Cast" that a cause-of-war exists and now a war machine will churn up for war because in irevockable at as been taken by who is now an enemy, or as Edward Donegan asserts here that the US has fallen to illegal covert systems to cover-up Kennedy assassination and NWO corruption reporting, using sophisticated undercover "Quiet War" systems of Confidential Informants, Snitches, and disposable assets to attack journalists and others and do so without fear of any repercussions and defended in the course of the crime by police or fire or other controller of the snitch.

Ted Gunderson, Ed Donegan, Geral Sosbee, Keith Labella, and others assert Organized Stalk is a measure the Deep State has adopted to covertly sabotage people whom the NWO feel may be a threat to the NWO in a mechanism if deforming (sabotaging) the lives and perceptions and even health and welfare of Targeted Individuals by illegal means though under guises of pedophile, terrorism, or other investigations some of which (terrorism, links to extremist groups) become self-fulfilling prophesies.

Mechanisms

The Organized Stalk initiates a smear campaign and asks the community to engage in helping law enforcement with the hypothesized threat. The help requested may treating the person as a pedophile or a person who is exploitative to the vulnerable (immigrants, minors in poorly fitting adult shaped gym-wear) and begin acting out scenarios that are part of the image of the person in public, being either retaliated against by those who are "on to" the Target Of Abuse Treatment (TOAT) also usally called the Targeted Individual (the individual being labeled by the actions near him or him, or by document fraud, identity theft, lies, or other mechanisms reinforcing public perceptions that are ever more reinforced by continuing undercover staged events.

Business contacts, friends and family, chances to lease apartments, even use public areas in a way not fraught with tense scenarios and conflicts unfolding as the Target Of Abusive Treatment is bullied for what is staged rather than what is real.

Further; claims of being covertly harassed are often retaliated against and seen or treated as the unprovoked or intolerant trouble making of bothersome person or a schizophrenic person, a person who has a guilty conscious and doesn't like having to face up to it.

Rage

From Within the Death Star Trash Compactor, Rage.

After Anakin left Tatooine to begin his Jedi training, [his mother Shmi married Cliegg Lars, a moisture farmer who won her in a bet against Watto. Her chance to see Anakin one last time came when, in the waning days of the Separatist Crisis, Shmi was abducted and subjected to torture by a group of Tusken Raiders in 22 BBY. By then, her son had returned to Tatooine as a Jedi Padawan after experiencing nightmares of her pain. Having seen her son again, Shmi told him she was complete but died in his arms. Unable to prevent his mother's demise, Anakin gave into the dark side of the Force and massacred the Tusken Raiders, including their women and children, and buried his mother at the Lars moisture farm.

I fit Smi exactly as my mother did. Simple farmers who made it big under Jim Donegan's war training as a pilot, and although he did not use or need it, a GI Bill that created a massive new middle class. I blame the police for the death of my family, my homelessness, Conspiracy Against My rights and the conditions I live under.

Around the time a woman was breaking into my apartment, various allusions to this event were made at SelectQuote Insurance.
The method of entry suggests theatrics were planned from the get go. The keys left hanging on my window didn't open anything, but were probably there to suggest that they opened my door. The woman probably had a master key, but conceivably could have picked the lock while pretending to use the keys as well.

I was given a fake rock for hiding keys while on the job at SelectQuote around this time. Just out of the blue. I was also warned to change my locks before my then estranged wife got back into town. Which was exactly when the break-in took place.

In these captures (and there are hundreds more abusive fakeouts by police show an amphetamine using looser Ed Donegan they keep capturing as he buys child porn but is able to buy his way out each time paying into victims funds KACHING there he goes again falling for the trap, the GULLIBLE the police can keep shaking down. It is not Ed falling for the trap but it is his consverancy paying out the fake claims, claims that will keep him homells and jobless as the police continue what Ted Gunderson calls COINTELPRO on steriouds and include poisenings, break-ins, and more.

The Question of Terrorism

As decade after decade of fraud has destroyed my life the move to Texas was the last try to find releif from corrupt acts of COINTELPRO and its devastation of my life. I openly recruit killers to kill police officers directly in front of police officers. The stench of this. As I told some snitches in a Texas jail, they already know. Doesn't matter if you tell them or not.

At one point my books said THE POINT OF THIS BOOK IS TO GET YOU TO KILL POLICE. Beat their heads with hammers over toilebwols, etc.,

As more and more Stalk literature comes out supporting what I and Jen Moore assert I think winning back the mainstream from their support of GangStalk is now possible. Since I AM a whites supremacist the public would back the police in this even there framing of me.

But now it is showing that many Deep State conspiracies exist and I am one of many examples most have nothing to do with politics - but everything to do with politicians and how THEY killed JFK.

Arriving in Texas Leaving Virginia Hoping for Better Conditions

Conditions of imposed (and not actualliy existant) poverty costing the amputation of my limbs following the death of my parents.

I had good tech skills and wished to go back to work as an engineer following the death of my mother. During her struggle with Congestive Heart Failures I spent several wonderful years at her side living with her, driving he to dialysis in her car, and medical appointments studing web tehcnology and going to web groups to learn about the tech and meet people into XML and emergent technologies. When sh died she left a will for me to keep the car and have a trust fund half of $360K for special needs, medicine, etc.., What is pictures are $20 shoes it took me abotu 5 months to save up for as I took long walks to loose wiehgt. I had blisters and my shopping cart (my car was towed from my own privage apartmenet lot infront of my apartment because I could not afford to register it or get it out of tow yard. I had lowered my from 13.3 to 4.7 in six months but not only could I not afford food (no lean meats, no food at all) I could not afford $1 dish soap for three weeks until I borrowed some from a neighor. My laundry was mildewing I had no money for laundry, yet I had my SSDI my brother was HODLING BACK from me (the bills were more than SSDI alone) and the trust fund was making sure no bill got paied, demanded each potential lawyer OR rentor sign a release with them alone, and on doing so each vendor would refuse any conatact with me. I was covered in blistedrs and scabs and had to leave for Texas hoping for better conditions, but police not only were working with the elder abuse but placing vioent gang membes on the sidewalks as I walked to lawyers.

One of the first medicla visits I had in Texas was in Corpus Christi Spohn Hosital. Unable to repair my $12 shopping cart from transporting diet coakes (6 x 2 liters) I tried carrying then and pinched the vertebrae in my neck from the weigth. ARC of Nova, my brothers, and others refused the car purchase I requested and the conditions remain. 10 Years later.

In San Francisco 20 and 30 years earlier I reported police GangStalk attacks but it only got me institutionalized as paranoid bipolar delusional, just as the noise campiang did to Veronica Hoffman.

I have been rely on Let Them Speak, these stalkers are known to many more than myself, and it is no longer my "paranoid" voice that describes them, others have seen them too, and reports of GangStalk and destrction of lives (Zerszung) are also all over the world now. I the mean tim3 45 yeA1crs of my life has been lost to being stalked and framed and kept homeless.

Gadsden flag retrieved from Wikipedia and copied or modified to here

Don't Tread on Me (Gadsen Flag)

The Gadsden flag is a historical American flag with a yellow field depicting a timber rattlesnake[1][2] coiled and ready to strike. Beneath the rattlesnake are the words "DONT TREAD ON ME".[a] Some modern versions of the flag include an apostrophe.

The flag is named for Christopher Gadsden, a South Carolina delegate to the Continental Congress and brigadier general in the Continental Army[4][5] who designed the flag in 1775 during the American Revolution.[6] He gave the flag to Commodore Esek Hopkins, and it was unfurled on the main mast of Hopkins's flagship USS Alfred on December 20, 1775.[5][7] Two days later, Congress made Hopkins commander-in-chief of the Continental Navy.[8] He adopted the

Gadsden banner as his personal flag, flying it from the mainmast of the flagship while he was aboard.[5] The Continental Marines also flew the flag during the early part of the war.[6]

The rattlesnake was a symbol of the unity of the Thirteen Colonies at the start of the Revolutionary War, and it had a long history as a political symbol in America. Benjamin Franklin used it for his Join, or Die woodcut in 1754.[5][9] Gadsden intended his flag as a warning to Britain not to violate the liberties of its American subjects.[5]

The flag has been described as the "most popular symbol of the American Revolution."[5] Its design proclaims an assertive warning of vigilance and willingness to act in defense against coercion.[10] This has led it to be associated with the ideas of individualism and liberty.[11][12][13][14][15][16] It is often used in the United States as a symbol for right-libertarianism, classical liberalism, and small government; for distrust or defiance against authorities and government.[17][18][19]

History of the rattlesnake symbol in America[edit]

The timber rattlesnake can be found in the area of the original Thirteen Colonies. Like the bald eagle, part of its significance is that it was unique to the Americas, serving as a means of showing a separate identity from the Old World. Its use as a symbol of the American colonies can be traced back to the publications of Benjamin Franklin. In 1751, he made the first reference to the rattlesnake in a satirical commentary published in his Pennsylvania Gazette. It had become the policy of Parliament to send some convicted criminals to the Americas (primarily the Province of Georgia), so Franklin suggested that Americans thank Parliament by sending rattlesnakes to Britain.[21]

In 1754, during the French and Indian War, Franklin published Join, or Die, a woodcut of a snake cut into eight sections. It represented the colonies, with New England joined as the head and South Carolina as the tail, following their order along the coast. This was the first political cartoon published in an American newspaper.[citation needed]

In 1774, Paul Revere added Franklin's iconic cartoon to the nameplate of Isaiah Thomas's paper, the Massachusetts Spy, depicted there as fighting a British griffin.[22]

In December 1775, Benjamin Franklin published an essay in the Pennsylvania Journal under the pseudonym "American Guesser" in which he suggested that the rattlesnake was a good symbol for the American spirit and its valuation for vigilance, assertiveness, individualism, unity, and liberty:[23]

> [...] there was painted a Rattle-Snake, with this modest motto under it, "Don't tread on me." [...] she has no eye-lids. She may therefore be esteemed an emblem of vigilance. She never begins an attack, nor, when once engaged, ever surrenders [...] The Rattle-Snake is solitary, and associates with her kind only when it is necessary for their preservation [...] 'Tis curious and amazing to observe how distinct and independent of each other the rattles of this animal are, and yet how firmly they are united together, so as never to be separated but by breaking them to > pieces. [...] The power of fascination attributed to her, by a generous construction, may be understood to mean, that those who consider the liberty and blessings which America affords, and once come over to her, never afterwards leave her, but spend their lives with her.

Flag of the Culpeper Minutemen

The rattlesnake symbol was first officially adopted by the Continental Congress in 1778 when it approved the design for the seal of the War Office.[citation needed] At the top center of the seal is a rattlesnake holding a banner that says, "This we'll defend". This design of the War Office seal was carried forward—with some minor modifications—into the subsequent designs as well as the Department of the Army's seal, emblem and flag.[citation needed] As such, some variation of a rattlesnake symbol has been in continuous official use by the US Army for over 243 years.

Other American flags that use a rattlesnake motif include The United Companies of the Train of Artillery of the Town of Providence, the First Navy Jack, and the Culpeper Minutemen flag, among others.

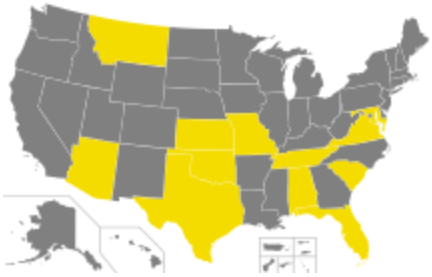
In the 21st century, the Gadsden Flag has been used by supporters of the Tea Party movement.

Modern use[edit]

Map of states (colored yellow) that offer Gadsden flag specialty license plates.

For historical reasons, the Gadsden flag is still popularly flown in Charleston, South Carolina, the city where Christopher Gadsden first presented the flag and where it was commonly used during the revolution, along with the blue and white crescent flag of pre-Civil War South Carolina.

The Gadsden flag has become a popular specialty license plate in several states. As of 2022, the following states offer the option of obtaining a Gadsden flag specialty license plate:



Alabama, Arizona,[32] Florida,[33][34] Kansas,[35] Maryland,[36] Missouri, Montana,[37] Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee,[38] Texas, and Virginia.[39][40]

Use as a symbol of the Tea Party movement[edit]

Beginning in 2009, the Gadsden flag was widely used as a protest symbol by protesters who supported the American Tea Party movement.[49][50][51] It was also displayed by members of Congress at Tea Party rallies.[52] In some cases, the flag was ruled to be a political, rather than a historic or military, symbol due to the strong Tea Party connection.[53]
